I am a former cowboy. I was a military pilot trained in counterinsurgency and served in the Second Infantry Division. I have been awarded the Cross of Malta . I am working on several books dealing with business planning and market surveys. I see small business as the key to better jobs and a stronger economy. I attended law school and went to the University of Hawaii. I have a degree in Management . I owned a mom and pop small business and am a former CEO of an Aerospace company. I have studied several foreign languages and have Substitute taught in grades K through 12 on the Big Island for a number of years . I am a small business consultant . I like sports, play chess and practice Tacwando karate I learned in Korea. My parents were Irish. My father Pat was in the horse business. My mom was a nurse and later a small business owner. My daughter is a Research Librarian for the Dept of Defence and is stationed at Aviano Air Base in Italy. My wife is a mammographer on the Big Island . My son is a carpenter. I think the task before us all, as custodians of the future of Earth , is to see to it that it is protected for our children and our childrens children. We must use our energies to seek peace and benefit mankind. My interests are small business management, medical care, transportation and education .
